OBITUARY

Vincent Little

JULY 3, 1945 - OCTOBER 13, 2023

IN THE CARE OF

Casey Funeral Home

Vincent Little, a man whose journey began in Galway, Ireland, and took him to the shores of the United States, sadly passed away on Friday, October 13. Vincent was born in the picturesque landscapes of Galway, Ireland, and it was there that he embarked on a life that would leave a lasting impression on all who had the privilege of knowing him.

In his early 20s, Vincent made the courageous decision to immigrate to the United States, where he eventually became a naturalized US citizen. His commitment to his new homeland was further evidenced by his two-year service in the army, with a post in Vietnam, where he demonstrated his unwavering dedication to the principles he held dear.

Upon his return, Vincent carved out a successful career working with ConEdison as an engineer, showcasing his exceptional intellect and dedication to his profession. However, it was not just his professional accomplishments that defined him; it was his warm and compassionate heart that endeared him to everyone he met.

Vincent was known to be a true friend, always looking out for his neighbors and friends in Staten Island. His intelligence, wit, and charm made him a delightful presence in his local coffee shop, where he shared laughter and stories with all who crossed his path. His beloved dogs, Jack and Russell, were a constant source of joy in his life, and their presence illuminated his days.

Vincent had a passion for country music and found solace in feeding the birds and squirrels around his home, nurturing the beauty of nature. His love for Ireland never waned, and in recent years, he had the opportunity to reconnect with his extended family there, strengthening the ties to his roots.

In accordance with Vincent's wishes, his ashes will be transported to Ireland, where they will rest alongside his father's grave in Toorena, Connemara, Co. Galway. A private family service in Ireland will be held at a later date to honor the life of a man who touched the hearts of many with his kindness, wisdom, and enduring friendship.

Vincent Little leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and a deep connection to both the United States and his cherished homeland of Ireland. He will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Upon searching for a friend's parent, I find the passing of my friend Vin. Always a joy to see him at the Manor Coffee shop , always a smile and a warm hello. It was obvious that we shared the ability to see in each other's soul and his smile verified that. I didn't know him well outside of our occasional breakfast/ lunch connections but believe me, the pleasure was all mine. Although it was the reciprocation of how he looked at you that built that pleasure..he just always knew without saying anything. That's one of the marks of greatness..God rest him like a great man he was..sincerely..

My dear uncle Vincent. It's hard to believe you're gone. We miss you terribly. Yes you were stubborn and I annoyed you quite a bit but in a fun way. You used to get so frustrated at times but we would just laugh together about it all. You came across as such a tough guy but you were a sweetheart behind it all. I know you preferred animals to most people but that was ok because the love and kindness you showed them made you shine. Rest easy uncle Vincent with love, Gillian

Rest peacefully Vin - you didn't want to go to the volunteer dinner last December but we convinced you and I was happy to be the "torn in your side" that you finally said ok! You didn't want a fuss - you didn't want pictures - but I snuck this one anyway! You were so humble didn't understand why you were talked about - but you're a legend at MOW and will be remembered fondly and missed.

Vincent was a dear friend.

It is with a great sadness I've found of his passing. I remember our time as boys, growing up in Gurteen, playing together in Tom and Mary Kane's. The November 'bite the apple in the water for six pence game' comes to mind.....

Vincent was great with animals, especially dogs. I remember, there was always a couple of dogs following him to Tully.

I was fortunate to reconnect with Vincent after many years and have fond memories of that. May he rest in peace.
