Death, poverty, heartaches
War brings all these things
Life experiences serious break
When war, peaceful people stings

Can God be thinking of the end
In guns, bombs and fire
To free us all from destined sin
Against the devil to inspire
What will come of man today
When he loses all his power
God will take his life away
In less than a human hour.
